LOCAL AFFAIRS.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—On Sunday morning last Officers Cullen and Cargaher, of the Tenth precinct, arrested two boys, threem and fourteen sears of age, who gave their sames as Robert Farquhar and James Butt, and said they were from Philadelphia, had come to this city for the purpose of seeking employment, and had received mosey from their parents to pay their expenses. Justice Haddy thought they were suspicious characters, and sent them to the workhouse until something could be ascertained about them.

house until something could be ascertained about them.

Subsequently, Mrs. French, who resides near Twenty-fifth and G streats, heard of Farquisar's arrest, and informed the officers that he had been to act to the first should be substantially with her, and that he had robbed her of $2,300, but that she had hither to failed to find him. The how was taken from the workhouse back to the Teath Precinct station, and fully identified by Mrs. French.

Farquisar had been to a jeweler to purchase a watch, and had offered a $500 bond in payment. The aronaved its suspicion of the jeweler, who took the boy and started for the station-house, but he excepted on the way. This bond was recovered; also, one which accused had given to a hoy in the Pirst ward. He had bought guns, pistols, watches, &c., which he had secreted in Alexandria.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT THE CAPITOL.

Shortly after four o'clock yesterday afteranou, while the workmen were eagaged in heisting atone on the west front of the south wing of the Capitol, the derrick was seen to sway. The near kept on at their work, but in a short time it swayed again; one of the beams bruke and several of the guys. The east end of the derrick fell, completely demolibiling the scaffolding, cansing heavy timbers to fall as far out as south Capitol street. One of the workmen, James and a sustable bleek streek him on the head, completely smashing his skull, scattering his brain about and causing the blood to spurt forth in a perfect stream. Had the unfortunate man made another step he would have escaped. The body was conveyed to a shed near by until the friends another step he would have escaped. The body was conveyed to a shed near by until the friends ensured it. Deceased was a wilower, and leaves so children. Another workman leaped from the scaffold and was severely, though not seriously, injured.

ATTENT TO ROB .- Yesterday morning a ATTEMT TO ROB.—Yesterday morning at associated by a man named Joneph Weish was attacked by a man named Charles McGuire, on D street, between Eighth and Rinth. Weish was passing along, when McGuire rashed out and setzed him. His cries attracted the attention of Officer Maxwell, who ran to the piace and succeeded in arresting McGuire, who was taken before Justice Thompson and sent (s.) all for court.

GROVER'S THEATRE. ... There seems to GROVER'S THEATHE....There seems to be no abatement whatever in the crowds that nightly seek entrance to this place of amusement. Mr. Heller, the greatest of all conjurors and plantic appears this evening in an entire change of programme, introducing, we are informed, many new and pleasing feats of magle, besides a variety of those pleasing solos upon the plane for e, the rendition of which induces us to endorse him as the great American plantst.
